

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Date:

Time:

Place:

Get silly! Get scary! Dress up! You're invited to celebrate this year's Halloween somewhat differently. Come and enjoy the delicious tastes of some of Peru's most famous and traditional food dishes, listen and dance to amongst other types the rhythmic tunes of Latin America and by doing so you will support a genuine project with indigenous people in northern Peru.

I'm going to Peru to volunteer with a small grassroots organization called Ayni. I will be part of their projects working towards trying to improve the lives of the local and extremely poor inhabitants of a small village south of the town Piura the northwest part of the country.

Ayni is not sponsored by any government, church or other organization and operate on an extremely limited budget. Therefore I have decided to fundraise for them and I'd be most grateful for your support.

Your ticket costs _____ and include _____

If you wish to support Ayni and enjoy a different Halloween party, please send a check to :

I hope to see you there!
